

Volunteer memorial

Camas volunteer firefighters who served 20 or more years have been honored with a memorial placed on the grounds of the Camas Public Library. A ceremony for those surviving volunteers named on the memorial (below) was held Wednesday. (Left) Kathy Hadley, wife of 20-plus year retired volunteer Ken Hadley, brought the couple's grandchildren, Tanner and Taylor Wehring, to see the memorial. The Camas Volunteer Fire Department is celebrating its 75th anniversary. Staff photos by Craig Clohessy.
